

My legacy to the Port will be...

I have helped women at the Port to feel connected, not competitive, and to demonstrate their support of each others' risks, development and successes...all employee's talents and skills are fully utilized and celebrated...I would like to leave a group of people, whom I have helped develop, who can carry on the mission of the Port and who will contribute to sound management and a positive organizational culture... to inspire a sense of joy, well being and enjoyment in the workplace... that I helped the Port recognize and value the representation of women in leadership...to help the Port learn how to develop the best in each employee and to personally learn to motivate people to be the best they can be... a place where women find their work exciting, challenging and recognized...women leaders are "the changes they want to see"...I facilitated the developing of women and people of color into strong leaders placed throughout the entire organization...I have inspired a women to become more than she had envisioned...that people were inspired by my leadership to accomplish whatever they wanted to do or become...women are recognized for the vital roles they hold at the Port – as experienced, capable, professional team members...a number of life long learners and teachers who I've influenced and mentored... that I was active in creating a solution to the inclusion of women at all levels of the organization...that I have made a positive difference in the professional lives of the women that I work with and that I leave the organization with long-lasting friendships... leave a respect and acceptance for women's voices and ideas in the economic development and management of the Port and the world.

Written by POS Women Leaders