

Freedom of choice

The freedom of choice of the individual was exemplified in the array of choices the consumer has when deciding. A limited menu of service providers denies the public an opportunity for Freedom of choice. The public should have the right to decide if they want to ride in a vehicle that may not have full safety equipment such as airbags.

Competitive Pricing

Competitive pricing is beneficial to the public interest in that it provides marketplace competition for those who want to earn the business. The public wins through price competition!

Antitrust

Our country's basic economic philosophy has been its faith in free competition. So long as the port receives it fees, why should it care who is the provider of services?

Equal Protection

The constitutional guarantee that no person or class of persons shall be denied the same protection of the laws that is enjoyed by other persons or other classes in like circumstances in their lives, liberty, property, and pursuit of happiness. Everyone who can offer and provide legal professional services should have an equal opportunity to work for and earn a living.
