

Terminal 91 South Fender Replacement

Kenneth Lyles - Director, Fishing and Commercial Operations

Mark Longridge - Capital Project Manager

Project Location

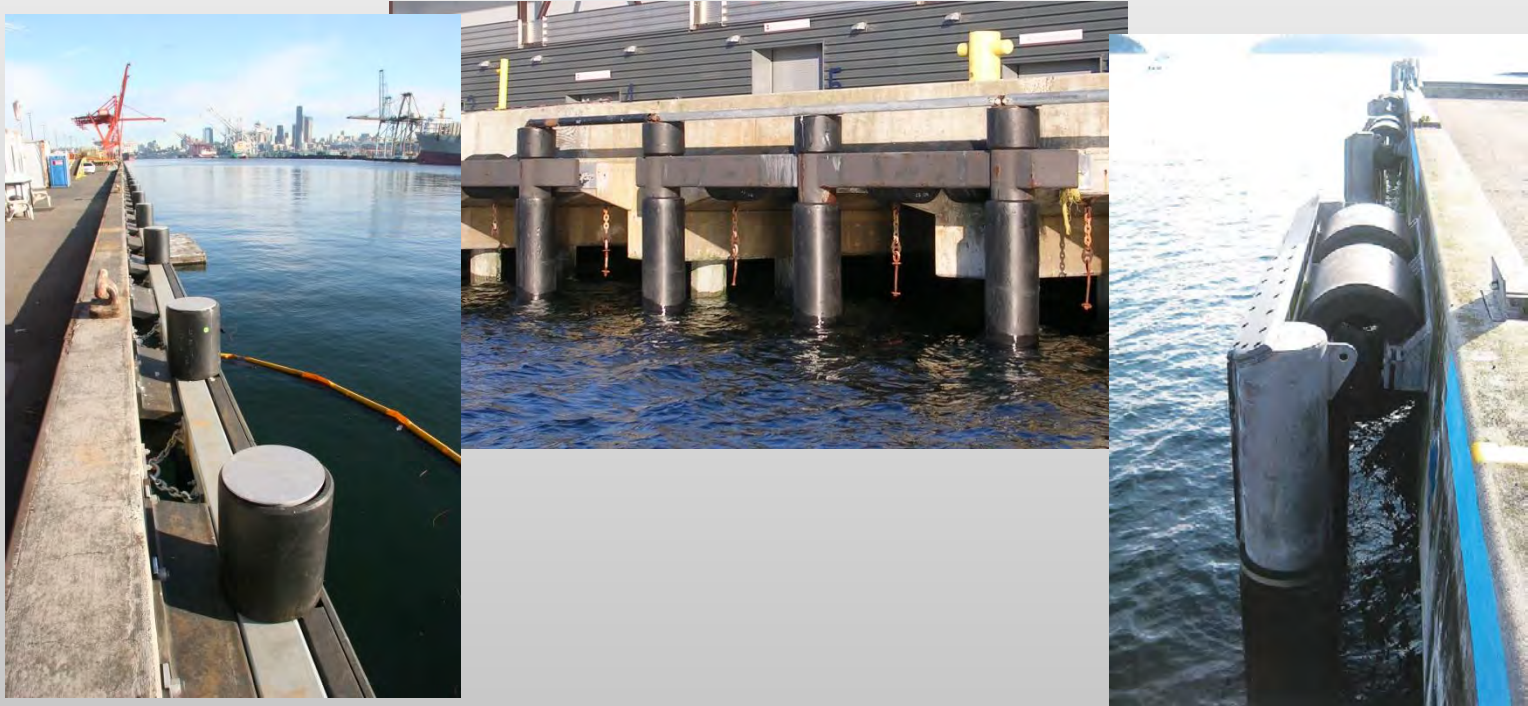

South face of Pier 91 currently used for fishing vessels and barge traffic in cruise off season

Current Condition

Current treated timber system heavily deteriorated and at the end of its service life

Proposed Replacement

While several layouts will be considered the new system will use long lasting more environmentally friendly epoxy coated steel piles

Questions?