New slate of opportunities is ready for the marketplace

ADR Program support for the Century Agenda

The redevelopment of the ADR Program supports the Port's Century Agenda to create 100,000 new jobs.

These opportunities also support a number of the Century Agenda strategies and objectives:

- Advance this region as a leading tourism and business gateway;
- Promote small business growth and workforce development;
- Be the greenest and most energy efficient port in North America.

ADR advances the Century Agenda

Commission Guidance for the ADR Master Plan

- Encourage broad business participation;
- Use flexible competitive leasing processes to accommodate all types of business;
- Create new opportunities for small, disadvantaged and local businesses;
- Maximize employment continuity for qualified employees;
- Continue ‘street pricing’ of products and services;
- Improve efficiency and affordability in the unit build out process;
- Establish job quality expectations in competitive processes;
- Strengthen the local Pacific Northwest sense of place.

Specific Commission guidance for the ADR Program

Commission Goals for the ADR Master Plan

- Grow sales per enplanement by at least 40 percent;
- Reach and remain within the top 10 North American airports as ranked by sales per enplanement;
- Grow gross revenues to the Port by 50 percent;
- Grow employment by 40 percent;
- Grow the share of sales generated by small, disadvantaged, and/or local businesses to 40 percent;
- Create an aspirational objective of increasing ACDBE gross sales to 25 percent of total sales.
