

Audit Committee Charter Review

Tom Barnard

Research and Policy Analyst

March 5, 2009

Background

- The Audit Committee was created to “represent the Commission and have review and oversight authority on matters relating to the Port's auditing process and procedures”
- In the past year the Audit Committee strengthened its oversight role and organizational capacity
- The Committee decided at January 2009 meeting to review and amend its internal charter, to bring the Charter up to date with the Committee’s current work

Review of Major Changes

- Overall re-organization of the Charter, to separate out authority, duties, internal responsibilities, composition, and meeting structure
- A more detailed spelling out of the authority of the Audit Committee and its relationship to the Commission
- A re-working of language concerning the Internal Audit Manager that reflects her work with the Audit Committee, and her responsibilities to it

Review of Major Changes

- A section requiring Port departments to report on their progress in correcting deficiencies previously pointed out by the Internal Audit Manager
- Clarification of the relationship between the Audit Committee and outside external auditors, as well as a fuller explanation of what audits they provide
- A description of the Audit Committee's review of performance audits
- A description of the reporting relationship between the Audit Committee and the State Auditor's Office

Review of Major Changes

- A corrected description of the Audit Committee membership
- A more detailed description of the skills and authority of the public member of the Audit Committee
- A slightly revamped description of meetings