

RESOLUTION NO. 3651

A RESOLUTION of the Port Commission of the Port of Seattle
renaming Elliott Bay Park as Centennial Park

WHEREAS, the Port of Seattle (the “Port”), a municipal corporation of the State of Washington established in 1911, owns and operates a system of marine terminals and properties and Seattle-Tacoma International Airport; and

WHEREAS, Elliott Bay Park, located adjacent to Terminal 86 on Seattle’s waterfront, is a Port-owned property consisting of eleven acres of landscaped areas with interpretive information, pedestrian and bicycle pathways and shoreline access; and

WHEREAS, in 2011, the Port of Seattle is commemorating the 100th anniversary of its founding on September 5, 1911; and

WHEREAS, renaming a popular and visible park in honor of the Port’s Centennial will serve to further inform the King County citizens of the Port’s longevity and economic contributions this region; and

WHEREAS, a public park is a tangible symbol of the sustainable future for the Port’s next 100 years; and

WHEREAS, the Port of Seattle will affix signs at the park’s three main entry points to designate the renaming;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Port Commission of the Port of Seattle that:

Section 1: Elliott Bay Park is hereby renamed Centennial Park.

ADOPTED by the Port Commission of the Port of Seattle at a regular meeting held this ____ day of _____, 2011, and duly authenticated in open session by the signatures of the Commissioners voting in favor thereof and the seal of the Commission.
