

Recap of Centennial Year

Communications:

- Centennial themed electronic holiday, Dec. 2010 and Dec. 2011
- Online Timeline—award-winning
- Documentary video—award-winning
- Commemorative book published, debut aboard the Virginia V at Fishermen's Fall Festival in September
- Centennial Banners installed at Port properties
- History Fact of the Month at each Commission meeting
- School video contest
- Centennial display at the airport

Events:

- Joint Chambers of Commerce/Pacific Northwest Historians Guild reception
- Centennial Park renamed on Earth Day with Sea/Air School children participating
- Get to know your Port bike ride
- Get to know your port by boat/Working Waterfront Tour
- Jack Block Park beach opening
- Centennial-themed Port 101 series
- Port video shown at Port booth for Fishermen's Fall Festival
- Seattle Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce hosted dinner in honor of Port Centennial
- AAPA conference in September

Honors:

- Port of Seattle Day (Sept. 5) declared in the State of Washington by the Governor
- U.S. Flag flown over U.S. Capitol on anniversary of our founding (Sept. 5)
- Proclamation as a Century Port by Secretary of State