Our Financials and Human Capital Management (HCM) Systems are required to conduct Port business. The Oracle annual support agreement is required in order to receive technical support and software upgrades for these systems as they become available. The funding for this purchase was included in the 2012 ICT expense budget.

BACKGROUND:

The Port of Seattle began using PeopleSoft as its financial system in 1996 and PeopleSoft HCM to manage its payroll and benefits in 1997. The original contracts included automatic renewal for annual software support. The PeopleSoft Corporation was purchased by Oracle in 2005.

In order to receive continued technical support and upgrades for these systems as they become available, the Port must renew its annual software support agreements. The 2012 estimated annual cost for each system (including tax) is:

- Financial system - $201,000

Oracle software support services include the following:
