About SCCtv

SCCtv (Cable)

Education based television is the focus of SCCtv cable. Daytime cable programming on weekdays is often tied directly to the coursework of instructors at Seattle Colleges. SCCtv also airs and produces community focused programming and originates a number of regular program series including Remarkable People with Jean Walkenshaw, Professor Fred's Movie Marvels and Centuries of Great Music with Orchestra Seattle. Many of these shows and more are archived and served on demand at www.scctv.net.

In fact, SCCtv became the first community college television station to stream live, fulltime 24/7/365 on the Internet.

Other Services

SCCtv offers professional video production services for education and community based projects, video-on-demand, web-based streaming support services and live video streaming services. To find out how we can help you with your project, give us a call at 206-395-5539.
