

INCREDIBLE PARKS WANT INCREDIBLE NAMES

Name a Park, Honor the River

Item No.	7a, Motion 2020-20
Date of Meeting	October 27, 2020

Presented by:
 Christina Billingsley, Sr. Program Manager Environmental Engagement
 Stephanie Jones Stebbins, Director Maritime Division

George Lee

Seattle Parks Foundation

Michelle Benetua

Seattle Parks Foundation

Renaming is Reclaiming. Rebuilding. Reconnecting.

Reflect the cultural and environmental importance

Strengthen and forge new partnerships

Empower community to connect and share stories

Review Committee Members

Magdalena Angel-Cano
Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition

Rosario-Maria Medina
Friends of Georgetown History

Warren KingGeorge
Muckleshoot Tribe

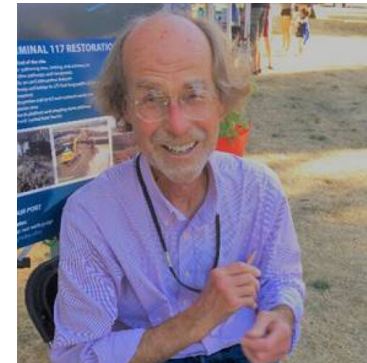

Dennis Lewarch
Suquamish Tribe

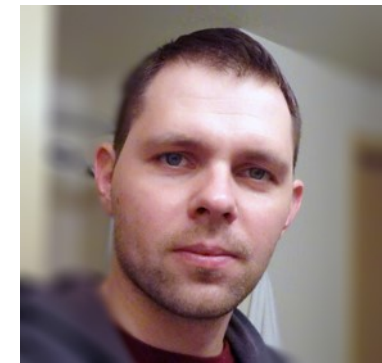

Sharon Leishman
Duwamish Alive Coalition

BJ Cummings
University of Washington
Superfund Research Program

George Blomberg
Port of Seattle
Maritime Environmental

Al Grant
Port of Seattle
Marine Maintenance

Our Process Implements Racial Equity Best Practices

- Diverse Review Committee represented
- Early consultation and coordination
- Active inclusion of Communities of Color
- Accessible communications
- Direct influence from the public
- Engaged Review Committee
- Multilingual and Lushootseed support

Plan & Design Process

March - July 2020

Name Nominations

July 24 - Aug 31, 2020

Name Scoring & Selection

September - October 2020

Outreach

Broad Participation from Community

Community Stories & Relationships

- On-the-ground relationships & local networks: signage, postcards with food drops, word of mouth
- Driven by community stories: website, videos, park profiles, testimonials
- Media coverage: KNKX, Crosscut, S. Seattle Emerald
- E-surveys: Khmer (2), Spanish (9), Vietnamese (2), +4,000 requests for Lushootseed words

Website

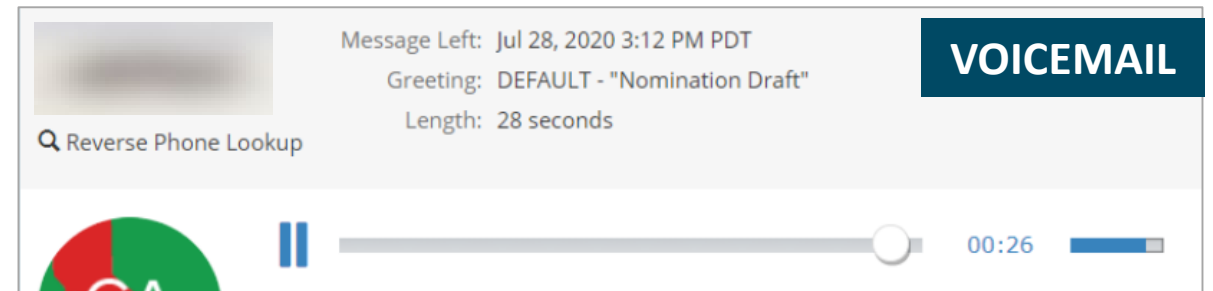

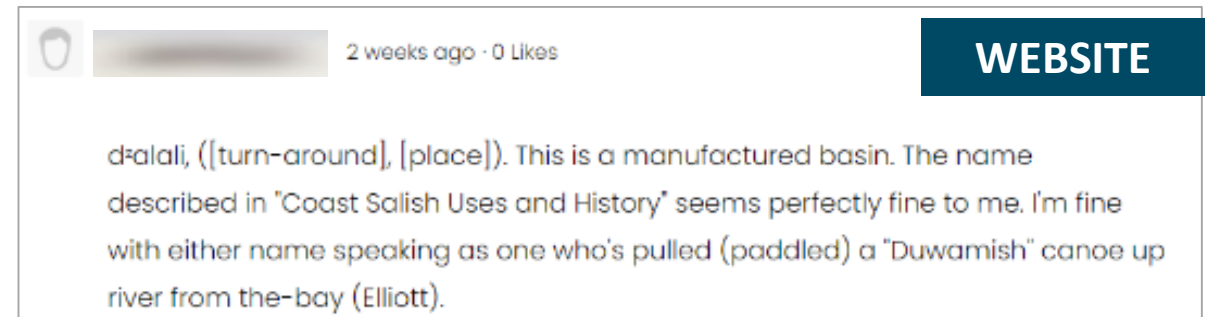

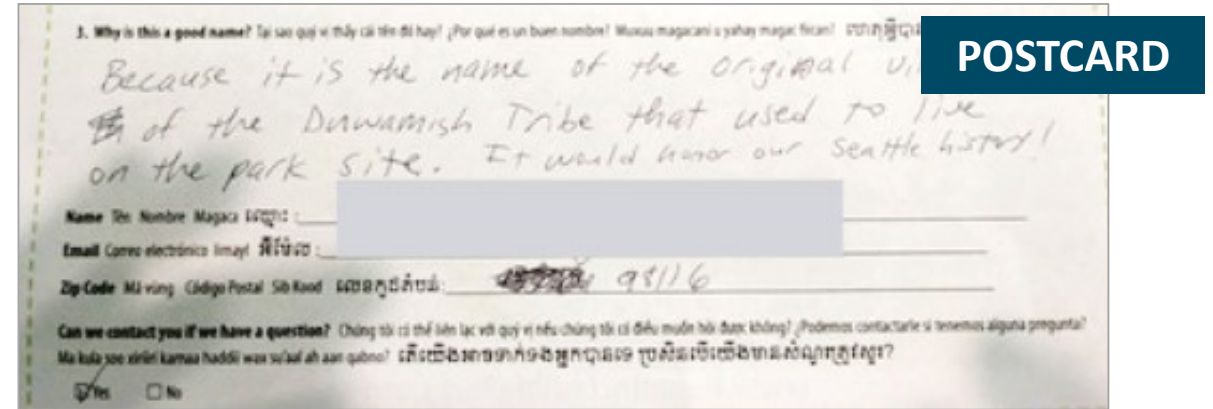

- 12,100 unique visitors
- 22,800 page views

Nomination Phase (Jul 24 – Aug 30)

- 3,500 public nominations received

Scoring Phase (Sep 15 – 30)

- 1,580 public ranking surveys completed

Criteria

Eligibility Criteria – Park name nominations should:

1. Be culturally, historically or environmentally important
2. Be in any language
3. Not be named after an individual person, company, or organization

Selection Criteria – Must meet at least one.

1. Name is reflective of a culturally significant element to the specific location or history of the park
2. Name is reflective of an environmentally significant element to the specific location or history of the park
3. Name accounts for the representation and inclusion of communities of color

Warren KingGeorge

Review Committee Member

Sharon Leishman

Review Committee Member

Terminal 105 Park

ʔuʔəlatx^w Village Park and Shoreline Habitat

(Toolalt / “t-oo-ah-lal-too-wx”)

*Herring’s House. Description of where herring live and spawn.
Name of an old village site on the west bank of the Duwamish River.*

Terminal 107 Park

həʔapus Village Park and Shoreline Habitat

(haapoos / “ha-ah-poos”)

Name of a small stream draining across a flat on the west side of Duwamish River.

Terminal 108 Park

sbəq̣wa? Park and Shoreline Habitat

(sbaqwah / “s-bah-qwah”)

Great Blue Heron

8th Avenue South Street End Park

ᑕᑦᑕᑦᑕᑦᑕᑦᑕ ᑭᑦᑕ ᑕᑦᑕᑦᑕᑦᑕ^ᑦ Shoreline Habitat

(tathtathootseed / “t-ahth-t-ahth-oots-eed”)

*Where there is something overhead, across the path.
Description of logs or branches located above a path or trail.*

Terminal 117

Duwamish River People's Park and Shoreline Habitat

Turning Basin #3

Salmon Cove Park and Shoreline Habitat

INCREDIBLE PARKS WANT INCREDIBLE NAMES

Name a Park, Honor the River

Salmon Cove Park

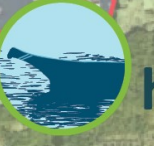

Duwamish River People's Park

ṭaṭṭaṭucid Park

sbəqwa? Park

həʔapus Village Park

ṭuʔəlaltx^w Village Park

Motion 2020-20

- to adopt the new names for six Port-owned public access and shoreline habitat sites along the Duwamish River as determined through the community engagement project, “Incredible Parks Want Incredible Names.”

Acknowledgements

- Duwamish Valley Neighbors & Community Members
- Stakeholder Review Committee Members
- Jolene Haas, Duwamish Tribe Longhouse & Cultural Center
- Faith Villalobos, Duwamish Valley Youth Corps
- Irene Gomez, City of Seattle Office of Arts & Culture
- Nancy Bob, Lummi/Duwamish, Lushootseed Revitalization
- James Rasmussen, Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition
- Josh Reid, University of Washington Department of History
- David Buerge, Historian
- Duwamish Valley Port Community Action Team
- Local Journalism – KNKX, South Seattle Emerald, West Seattle Blog, West Side Seattle, Georgetown Gazette, Crosscut, KOMO, KIRO7
- And many more!

THE POWER OF OUR STORIES

WITH STORYTELLERS
BARBARA LAWRENCE, SUQUAMISH
JOHNNY MOSES, NUU-CHAH-NULTH, TULALIP, DUWAMISH
JUSTICE BILL, MUCKLESHOOT
PRODUCED BY ROGER FERNANDES AND FERN RENVILLE

THE POWER OF OUR STORIES

www.NameIncredibleParks.org/ipwin/celebrate