

Item No. 11b supp
Meeting Date: December 14, 2021

PUBLIC ART PROGRAM 2021 ANNUAL REPORT

Art Pool Funds

- Approximately $300,000.00 of Aviation Art Pool Funds were spent in 2021
- Working with Maritime and Economic Development to create Art Pools

North Satellite Project

Photo credit: Rafael Soldi

International Arrivals Facility

Photo credit: Spike Mafford

Indigenous Art acquisition

Maritime projects

- Two opens calls for Fishermen's Terminal:
 - Maritime Innovation Center (MInC)
 - Site improvement
- T117 project

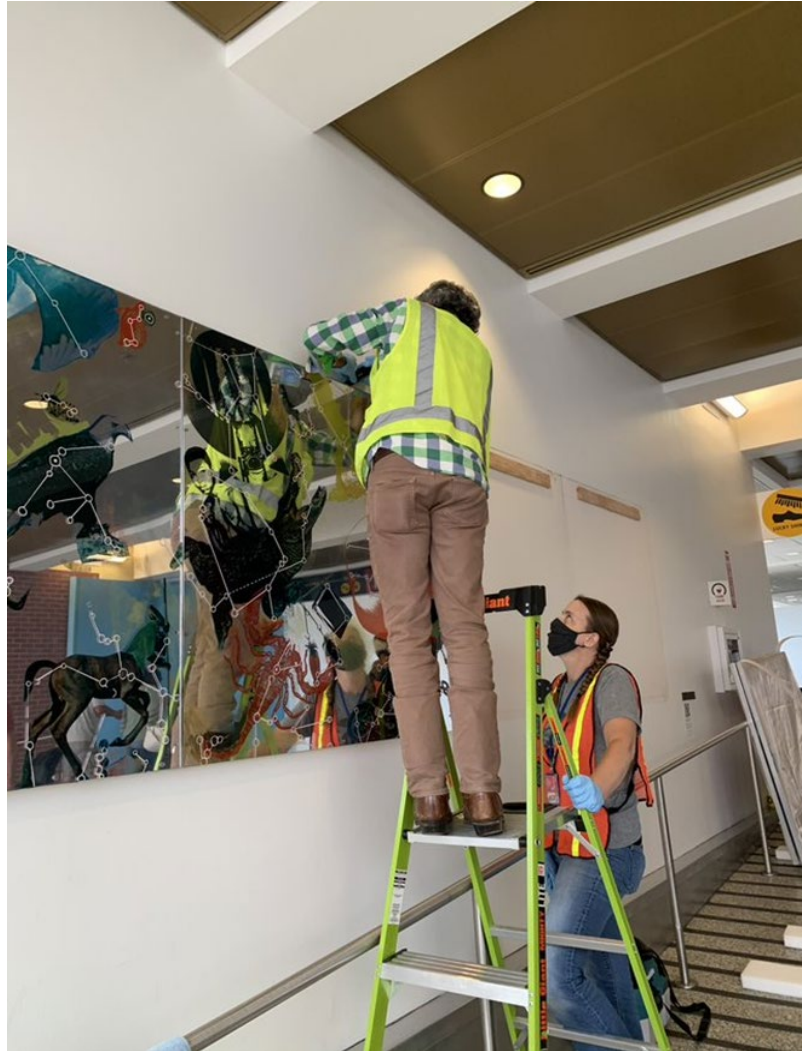

Conservation efforts and maintenance

Expense

- 2021 forecast: around $102,000.00
- c
- 2022: around $674,000.00 was approved for operating art budget. Full-time art technician was approved.

Aviation Public Art Program 5-year CIP Plan

Port-Wide Arts and Cultural Program:

- Returns the Port of Seattle to its position as a national leader among its peers
- Promotes art and culture throughout all Port and Port-related facilities
- Public engagement

The Future @ SEA

SSAT Renovation
2024

AMEX Lounge
2022

C Concourse Expansion
2027

Restroom Renewal & Expansion
2021-2023

Widen Arrival Drives
2025

North Main Terminal Renovation
2025

Automated Parking Guidance System
2023

International Arrivals Facility
2022

Duty Free
2025

A Concourse Lounge Expansion
2023

Developing appreciation for what is around us

- Connecting our passengers experience with dynamic Public Art
- Curating the collection in consideration of the SEA legacy in Public Art

What Public Art Can Be

Serene

Experiential

Whimsical

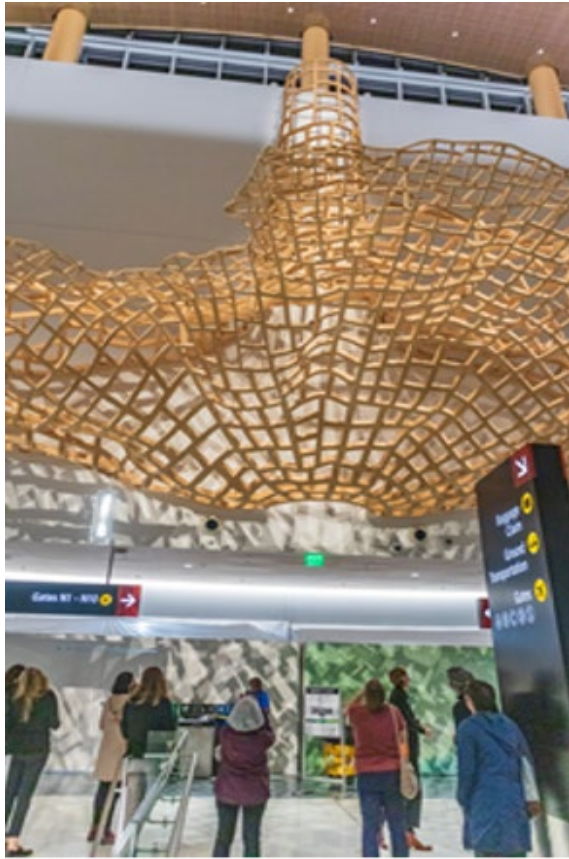

Impactful

Immersive

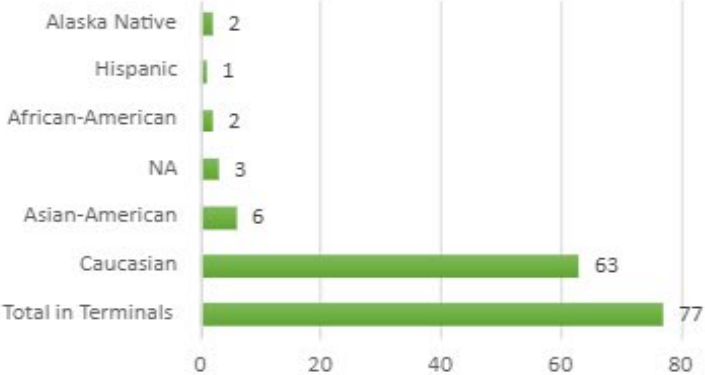

A strong Public Art presence allows for places of congregation, and moments of tranquility.

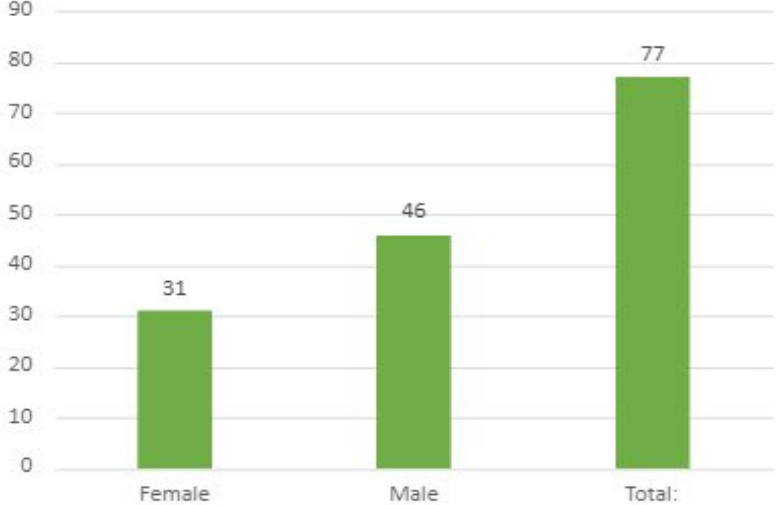

Equity, diversity and inclusion principles

SEA collection- Before 2019

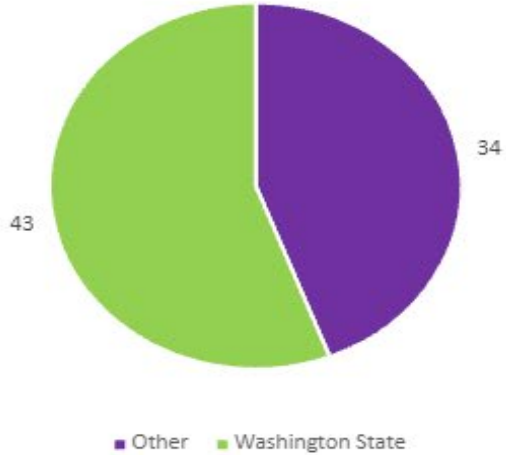

Ethnicity

Gender

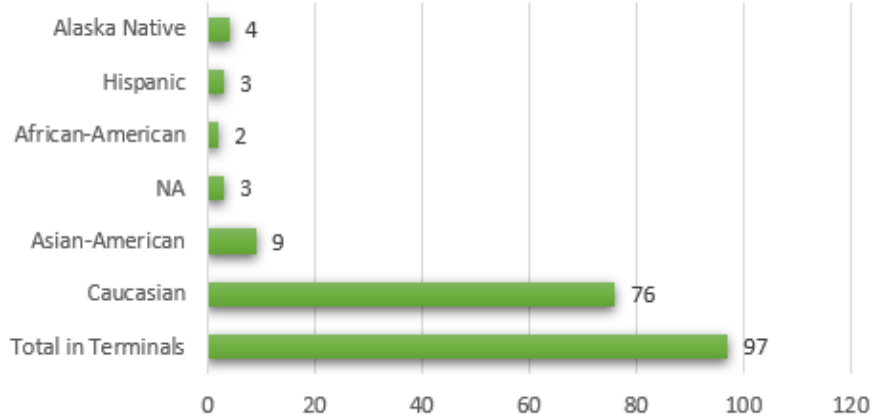

Residence

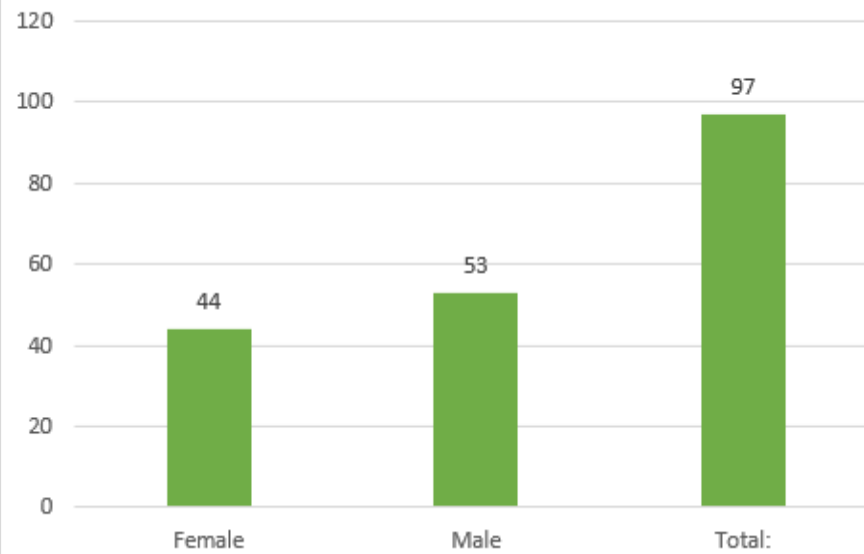

SEA collection- 2020

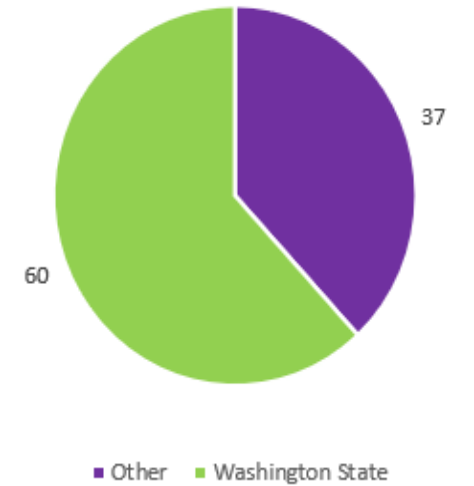

Ethnicity

Gender

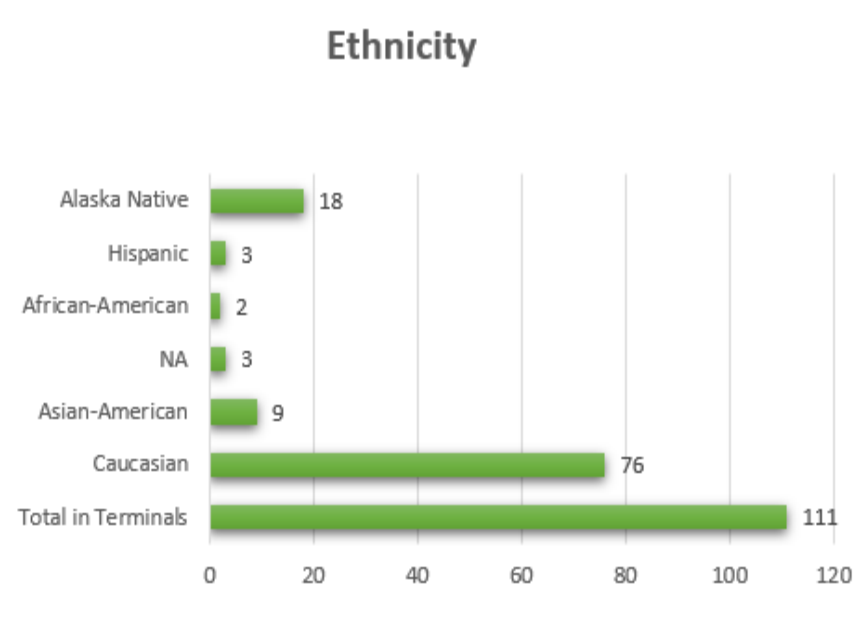

Residence

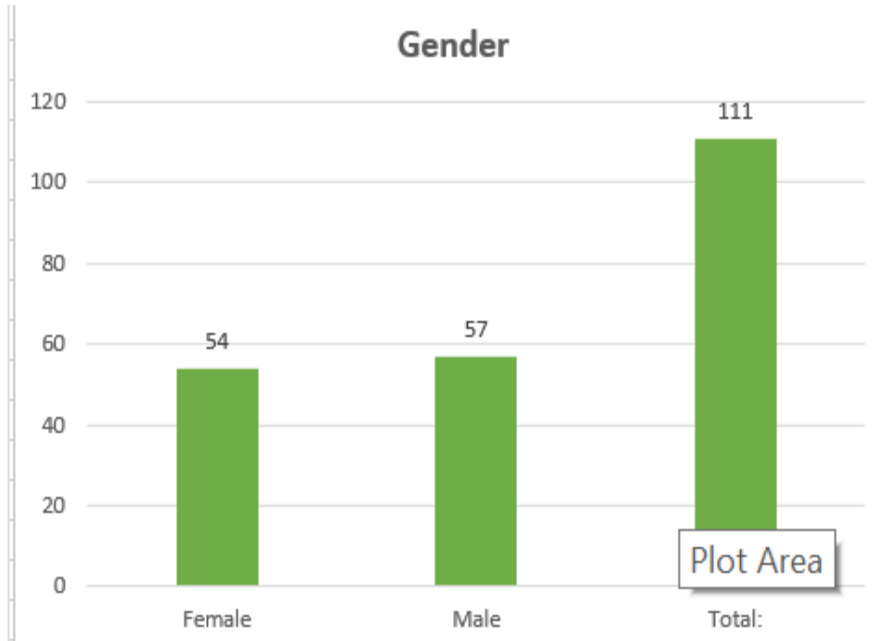

SEA collection- 2021

With recent Indigenous Art acquisitions for IAF

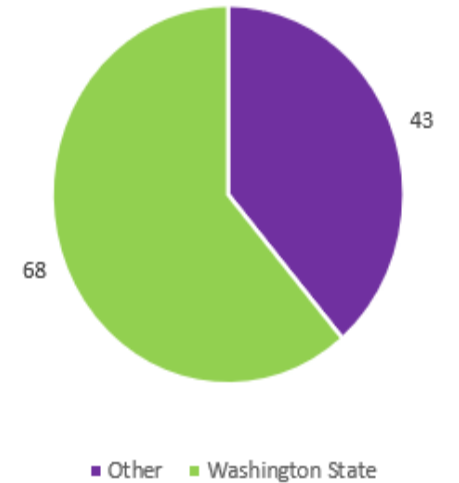

Ethnicity

Gender

Residence

Thank you!

Port of Seattle®

Connect with your Port

www.portseattle.org/subscribe

